Dear Friends of Ukraine:

You are cordially invited to attend the Tenth US-Ukraine Security Dialogue, entitled Taking Measure of Russia’s Hybrid War Against Ukraine. The forum will be held on Thursday, February 28, 2019 at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C..

The full day event will bring together key senior defense officials and authorities from Ukraine and Europe along with leading US defense experts and select members of Congress and the Administration to discuss Russia’s “voina bez mezh” (war without boundaries) as practiced against Ukraine. The study will examine the phenomenon along five dimensions: landed military operations; sea/air military operations; political disruption efforts; economic disruption; efforts; information warfare. The gathering will also give prominence to reflections by senior Ukrainian and US government officials aimed at considering why Ukraine’s security matters both to its neighbors and the world at large. In total, over two dozen featured speakers are expected to address the conference.

The complete program of the day’s event, along with a list of invited speakers, is included below. You can read more about the 9th Security Dialogue in the Ukrainian Weekly:
