UKRAINE'S QUEST for MATURE NATION STATEHOOD

You are respectfully invited to take part in Ukraine's Quest for Mature Nation Statehood Roundtable XXII: Forging A Strong Yet Forbearing National Identity – Past Endeavors, scheduled to take place October 21, 2021 at the University Club in Washington DC

The gathering will be the first in a new critically important trilogy of UA Quest Roundtables (2021-23) essentially dedicated to exploring and evaluating Ukraine's efforts to establish a distinctive but broadminded national identity. It will be tasked to look at the past, to examine Ukraine's attempt to define itself in the midst (or in the aftermath) of two World Wars and a global Cold War as well as a nation breaking Famine Genocide. The proceedings, in the context of the said exploration, will also look at the various DEZINFORM campaigns that have been launched over time to deform the process, including Putin's recent 'Memory Wars' campaign.

For more information, or to register for the conference, please contact the Program Coordinator, Walter Zarycky, at 917-476-1221 / waz2102@columbia.edu, or UCCA Communications Coordinator, Andrij Dobriansky, at 917-572-6987 / drijmail@gmail.com.

The U.S. Committee for Ukrainian Holodomor Genocide Awareness has begun a new national campaign to demand the revocation of the 1932 Pulitzer Prize awarded to Walter Duranty. Ukrainians have been trying to overturn this Pulitzer award for more than 20 years. In 2003 they almost succeeded. After an intensive letter-writing campaign, the to conduct a comprehensive study of Duranty's award. Based on the findings of Duranty's egregious lying, there is now a plaque next to his award at the New York Times, which states, "Other writers in the Times, and elsewhere, have discredited this coverage." In 2003, New York Times Executive Editor Bill Keller said that his newspaper would have no objection if the Pulitzer Committee were to revoke Duranty's award.

Awarding the Pulitzer to a man who suppressed the truth, negates journalism's first obligation which is "to the truth." Stripping Duranty of his Pulitzer Prize would be a small, but symbolic measure of accountability for complicity in genocide.

For more information about the campaign, please contact the subcommittee chair at Holodomor.DurantyRevoke@gmail.com, or visit the US Committee's site at the following web address: <https://ukrainegenocide.com/duranty-revocation/>.

Вальтер Дуранті розповідав брехню коли писав: "Не існує жодного голодомору, чи голоду взагалі, і навряд чи буде." Прошу підписати петицію про відкликання нагороди Пуліцера Вальтер Дуранті, частиною більшої програми Українського Комітету про визнання Українського Голодомору-Геноциду в США.
