Ukraine in the News

With some 100,000 Russian troops now massed on Ukraine's eastern border, the Biden administration is leaning toward providing Kyiv with battlefield intelligence, according to a former senior NATO official briefed by administration officials.

This week, the 2022 National Defense Authorization Act is on the move towards passage by the full U.S. Senate. The proposed legislation, which earlier passed in the U.S. House of Representatives initiative and increase funding from $200 million to $600 million per year, including at least $75 million specifically for lethal assistance. These funds are used to help train, equip, and provide support for the Ukrainian government in their effort to defend their territory and autonomy against ongoing Russian aggression.

UCCA recommends contacting your state's Senators directly and expressing the need to support Ukraine:

Last week, senior member of the House Armed Services and Intelligence Committees, Congressman Mike Turner (OH-10), alongside Ranking Member of the House Armed Services Committee, Congressman Mike Rogers (AL-3), led a group of colleagues in sending a letter to President Biden urging the Biden Administration to take swift action against Russia's most recent buildup at the Ukrainian Border.

Unfortunately, this honorable action in support of a U.S. ally spurred Fox News host Tucker Carlson, who has repeatedly sowed doubts about the U.S.-Ukraine strategic partnership, into condemning the congressman for urging American military support to Ukraine amid increased Russian aggression.

On Saturday, November 27th, the Ukrainian American community will commemorate the 88th anniversary of Ukraine's Holodomor Famine-Genocide of 1932–1933 with a solemn requiem service in New York City. The ecumenical prayer service to remember and honor the millions of innocent victims of one of the worst tragedies that befell the Ukrainian nation, will be concelebrated by the Ukrainian Orthodox and Ukrainian Catholic religious hierarchies at 1:00PM at St. Patrick's Cathedral - 5th Avenue between 50th & 51st Streets.

Add our Facebook Event to your calendar

To help keep our community safe during this ongoing Coronavirus pandemic, we encourage everyone to wear a mask inside the Cathedral, even if you are vaccinated.

If you do not feel comfortable attending in person, the 88th Anniversary Requiem Service will be livestreamed on the website of St. Patrick's Cathedral:
