Stand With Ukraine: Day of Solidarity in Washington, D.C.
February 20, 2022

Supporters of Ukraine from all over the United States come to the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. to show solidarity with Ukraine and support for its independence and territorial integrity within its internationally recognized borders.

The Heavenly Hundred Vigil:
Eighth Annual Commemoration Service and Candle Vigil for the "Heavenly Hundred/Nebesna Sotnia" to honor the fallen heroes of the Ukrainian Revolution of Dignity in 2013-2014, and the 14,000 soldiers and civilians who have died in the eight-year ongoing Russian war in eastern Ukraine.

Ukrainian sources often refer to the killed protesters as the Heavenly Hundred (Ukrainian: "Небесна сотня"). On 21 February 2014, Verkhovna Rada recognized the protesters who had been killed at Euromaidan as victims. On 21 November 2014, by President Petro Poroshenko's decree, the deceased Ukrainian protesters of Euromaidan were posthumously awarded the title "Hero of Ukraine". Since 2015 "the Day of the Heavenly Hundred Heroes" is celebrated on 20 February.

The Rally for Unity and Peace March:
Objectives for the rally and peaceful march are:

- To protest and stop the imminent Russian invasion on Kyiv and/or other parts of Ukraine.
- To reaffirm Ukraine's sovereignty and territorial integrity.
- To demand an end to Russian ongoing war in Ukraine and the occupation of Crimea and other territories in eastern Ukraine and the release of all Ukrainian citizens unjustly imprisoned by Russia, including Crimean Tatars.
- To thank the Biden Administration for its help and support and to request the following:
 - Enforce past promises including stopping Nord Stream 2 in response to Russian aggression in Ukraine and its failure to de-escalate and withdraw its forces from the Ukrainian border.
 - Prepare and announce further ongoing sanctions (such as cutting Russia off from SWIFT) that would trigger immediately upon another invasion of Ukraine.
 - Continue sending Ukraine effective weapons to help them defend their territorial integrity and independence.
