Russia's efforts to illegally annex parts of Ukraine denounced worldwide

On Wednesday, 12 October, the UN General Assembly passed a resolution by a large majority, calling on countries not to recognize the four regions of Ukraine which Russia has claimed, following so-called referendums held late last month, and demanding that Moscow reverse course on its "attempted illegal annexation".

"The United States is proud to have voted in favor of this resolution. As we have stated repeatedly, we will defend the principles of the UN charter and will never recognize the legitimacy of sham referenda or Russia's attempts to annex portions of Ukraine," stated U.S. Secretary of State, Antony Blinken.

The United States has pledged continue to work with partners across the globe to support Ukraine's people in defending their nation in its entirety against Russia's aggression.

AS LONG AS IT TAKES

Thank you to G7 & President Biden For Their Unwavering Support of Ukraine!

With very few nations voting with Russia today, it is clear that international unity on this question is resolute and support for Ukraine at the UN and beyond is unwavering. NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg called Russia's actions "the largest attempted annexation of European territory by force since the Second World War."

Portman, Durbin Statement on Civilian Missile Attacks in Ukraine

October 10, 2022 | Press Releases

WASHINGTON, D.C. — U.S. Senators Rob Portman (R-OH) and Dick Durbin (D-IL), Co-Chairs of the Senate Ukraine Caucus, released the following statement after Russia conducted a large missile attack on innocent civilians and civilian infrastructure across Ukraine today.

"We condemn the intentional attacks on civilian targets across Ukraine in the strongest possible terms and call on the international community to do the same. Like it has done several times in this war, Russia is trying to cope with its setbacks on the battlefield by lashing out against innocent Ukrainian civilians. These war crimes are reprehensible and Vladimir Putin and his associates should be held accountable," said the Senators.

"We also call for the United States and our allies to provide additional security aid to help Ukraine defend itself against these unjustified attacks. Ukraine has the right to defend itself against this unjustified and illegal invasion. The best way to force an end to these attacks on civilians is to provide Ukraine with the weapons it needs to defeat Russian forces on the battlefield."

Congressional Ukraine Caucus Statement on Russia's Missile Strikes

Washington, D.C. — Today, the Co-Chairs of the bipartisan Congressional Ukraine Caucus — Representatives Marcy Kaptur (D-OH), Brian Fitzpatrick (R-PA), Mike Quigley (D-IL), and Andy Harris (R-MD) — released the following statement on Russia's missile strikes.

"Russia's latest onslaught targeting civilians in Kyiv and across Ukraine demonstrates Vladimir Putin's desperation as his forces encounter repeated setbacks. Russia is seeking to break the will of the Ukrainian people and the commitment of its allies to Ukraine's victory. That will not happen as the world stands united against this barbarism. Putin and his enablers will be held accountable for their crimes."
