Eight years ago, Ukraine decreed that October 14 would be set aside as an annual public holiday to “honor the courage and heroism of defenders of independence and territorial integrity of Ukraine, along with the military traditions and feats of the Ukrainian people.” And while we readily observe this event each October 14, it is important to acknowledge that Ukraine’s Defenders stand at the ready every day of the year.

As Ukrainians well know, the 14th of October has been an auspicious date for the people of Ukraine, dating back the legendary times of Kyivan-Rus when the Feast of the Intercession of the Mother of God - Sviato Pokrovy - was first celebrated by our people. A church was later built in honor of the Intercession at the Sich of the Zaporizhzhian Kozaks, who used this day of prayer as the date for the Kozaks to gather their Velyka Rada and democratically elect their leadership. Since those times, Ukrainians have also set aside October 14 as a Day to Honor the Glory of the Ukrainian Kozaks.

with its member organizations and Ukrainians worldwide in celebrating these holidays and celebrating the Glory of Ukraine's Defenders.

In the words of President Zelenskyy: "This is the glory of those who are free, not enslaved. This is the glory of those who bring peace, not destroy it. This is the glory of those who fight for freedom in a way that they become legends during their lifetime."

This year also marks the 80th year since the founding of the Ukrainian Insurgent Army (UPA), and the 75th year since UPA executed its final directive – it's "Great Raid" - to spread documentary source material throughout the nations of Western Europe about Ukraine's heroic struggle for independence. To honor this historic anniversary, the special Ukrainian National Committee organized by Ukrainian American representative organizations to commemorate these events, will present two special evenings - in Whippany, NJ, and Jenkintown, PA - this weekend. UCCA encourages members of our community to attend these events to honor the eternal memory of Ukraine's defenders.

Щоб належно відзначити і вшанувати 80-ліття створення УПА та 75-ліття Великого Рейду УПА на Захід, Крайовий Всеєвропейський Комітет має шану запросити Вас на два Пропам'ятні Концерти які відбудуться під кличем «Від УПА до ЗСУ».
