Ukrainian Historical Encounters Series

A Special Event

RUSSIAN-UKRAINIAN MEMORY WARS

IN WESTERN ACADEMIA AND MEDIA

On Saturday, 16 September, the 2023 Ukrainian Historical Encounters Series special event will be held at the Ukrainian Institute of America in New York City. This year's discussion will center on "russian-Ukrainian Memory Wars in Western Academia and Media."

The gathering is scheduled to run from 12:00pm-5:30pm and feature three highlight focus sessions and two panel discussions, with speakers such as Ostap Kryvdyk, Lubomyr Hajda, Myroslav Shkandrij, Olga Bertelsen, Kateryna Shynkaruk, Anna Procyk, Mark Thomas, Lada Kolomiyets, Irena Jarosewych, Bohdan Nahaylo, Yevhen Fedchenko, Michael Bociurkiw, Petro Kormylo, and Diane Francis. The discussion should take a fresh, critical look at the manner in which russian history and Ukrainian history have been treated/depicted in two key Western informational arenas – academia and media – as well as examine the interplay between the two 'narratives' in the said settings.

As with previous UHES events, the event will be streamed live on both Facebook and YouTube.

Participate by Zoom

Reserve the date for an exceptional event - 17 September at One World Trade Center in New York City. The Grand Founders' Annual Summit 2023 will feature renowned keynote speakers and engaging panel discussions to illuminate global trends in key industries, with a particular focus on Ukraine's contributions. This event is exclusively tailored for GPs, LPs, business owners, artists, athletes, academics, students and future leaders, who seek to delve into impactful themes, including impact investments, entrepreneurship, economic development, national security, art, culture and legacy.
