ANNOUNCING A STUDENT COMPETITION
GRADES 9 – 12

---

Ukrainian Holodomor Genocide Student Competition 2024

In the 1930s, the Soviet Communist regime perpetrated one of the most devastating genocides of the 20th century. The study of the Holodomor offers a key to understanding Russia's current genocidal war against Ukraine.

Objectives of the student competition:

1. To acquire knowledge about the Holodomor
2. To present or publish a product about the Holodomor
3. To raise awareness about the Holodomor by sharing this product within an educational or community setting

Suggested formats for submission:

Writing:

Research essay, newspaper article, short story, play, poem, interview with a Holodomor survivor or descendant, a comparison of the Holodomor to other genocides and/or to Russia's current war against Ukraine, analysis of the U.N. Convention on Genocide as applied to the Holodomor and current war, the role of journalists during the Holodomor

Web based projects:

Multimedia, Power Point, Video

Submissions must include a list of reference sources and/or survivor and witness testimony. Maximum of three students per submission. Winners in group will share the prize.

Suggested websites for resources: <https://holodomor.ca>
<https://holodomorct.org>
<https://ukrainegenocide.com>

Prior to submission, students must present their submission to a class, club, library, or other community organization or provide evidence of a published product within the time frame of the competition. The attached U.S. Holodomor Student Competition Form must be completed by the student's teacher/advisor and accompany the submission.

Please email submissions to ukrainecompetition@gmail.com.

Deadline for submissions: March 15, 2024

Prizes for competition winners are:
