MEDICAL UPDATE:

In our most recent container shipment, UCCA delivered a new supply of essential medical equipment—including stretchers, examination tables, and other specialized medical tables.

These critical items have already been distributed to hospitals and emergency units where they are urgently needed, helping medical teams treat both civilians and military personnel more efficiently.

This shipment is part of UCCA's ongoing commitment to strengthen Ukraine's medical infrastructure by providing frontline doctors, nurses, and paramedics with the essential tools to save lives under the most challenging conditions, as well as delivering crucial support to equip hospitals and clinics damaged by the conflict.

UPDATE:
Tactical Combat Casualty Care
courses continues with
UCCA's support

Conducting these courses with Ukraine's military, significantly improves survival rates on the battlefield and helps align Ukraine's emergency medical systems with NATO standards.

TCCC courses are also taught to civilians. Following the completion of the course, all receive medical supplies that help to save lives.
