

Humanitarian Update #169

as of January 8, 2026

A white van is parked on a grassy field. The van is the central focus of the image, with its side profile visible. It has a black stripe running along the bottom of its body. The background is a blurred landscape with some trees and a cloudy sky. The overall tone of the image is somewhat somber and documentary.

Mobility means care.

UCCA helped purchase this vehicle so Ukraine's military chaplains can reach soldiers on the front lines in their hardest moments....

... to bring them
comfort, compassion & hope, and help sustain the mental, emotional & spiritual strength of the men & women defending Ukraine.

Non-Lethal Aid Update:

UCCA continues fulfilling urgent requests from Ukraine's Freedom fighters.

This week we delivered high-quality optical equipment, to help enhance their viewing capabilities.

Operation Against the Cold: UPDATE

A pallet packed with heated socks, gloves and vests were delivered to a unit serving directly on the frontlines.

Boxes of warm gear were also delivered to the Georgian Legion- a volunteer military unit composed mainly of ethnic Georgians fighting alongside Ukrainian forces against russian aggression & defending Ukraine's sovereignty.

As well as to other units in undisclosed locations.

#SupportUkraine

Charity Navigator

With more than 200,000 charities rated, Charity Navigator provides free access to data, tools, and resources to guide philanthropic decision-making. According to their comprehensive ratings program, the cost-effectiveness and overall health of a UCCA's programs merit a 3-Star Charity rating. By the measures of UCCA's stability, efficiency, and sustainability, UCCA ranks as a standout organization.

Platinum Transparency 2025

Candid.

As russia persists in targeting civilian infrastructure, Ukraine's humanitarian needs continue to rise while critical funding declines. As we enter the New Year, we invite you to continue your support of UCCA's #SupportUkraine Humanitarian Effort. Remember, every contribution gives hope & helps save lives.